Tanknology names Chris Bouldin as Marketing Manager

Austin, TX, January 3, 2018 — Tanknology Inc. announced today that Chris Bouldin has joined its sales and marketing team as Marketing Manager. In this capacity, Bouldin will oversee marketing activities in a variety of areas, supporting both domestic and international sales efforts.

A ten-year veteran of the industry, Bouldin began his career as a Program Coordinator for the Petroleum Equipment Institute (PEI).

For the last five years, Bouldin has served as the Program Director for PEI, a 1,600-member international trade association comprised of manufacturers and distributors of equipment used in the fuel and fluid handling industry. Bouldin holds a Bachelor's degree from Arkansas State University and a Master's degree from Appalachian State University.

Tanknology CEO Allen Porter said Bouldin's extensive knowledge of the petroleum industry will make him a valuable addition to Tanknology's worldwide sales and marketing efforts.

"Chris has been a successful industry executive and has helped shape many of the programs and publications that Tanknology relies on for safety, networking and employee development," Porter said. "We are excited to have him on our team to help us take strategic marketing to the next level."

Based in the company's Austin, Texas headquarters, Bouldin can be reached at (800) 964-0150 or via email at cbouldin@tanknology.com.
